

ROBBERY EXCITES ASBURY PARKERS

Theft of Flower Show Money and Baby Parade Trophies Talked About.

A T. R. CONVENTION

Will Be Held Soon—Those Who
Have Arrived in the Last Week.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—The robbery of the flower show money and the baby parade trophies, which were held up by a man in a dark suit, was the subject of a talk by a man in a dark suit, who was speaking at the Asbury Park Convention, which was held at the Asbury Park Hotel, last night.

The features of the coming week will be the State Roosevelt convention to be held here on the 18th and the annual convention of the major painters and decorators of New Jersey. A tuberculosis exhibit in the Casino is attracting considerable attention. The exhibit is given in a campaign being waged throughout the county to secure a county hospital for consumptives. A circus for the benefit of this project is being arranged by summer folk here.

Bathing, boating, fishing and other outdoor pastimes make up the daily programme, while the boardwalk promenade, band concerts and hotel functions in the evening fill out a busy day. The surf has been ideal during all the hot spell there has not been a day when a strong sea breeze has not blown in from the north. Visitors, however, would welcome a gray day and cottagers especially are praying for rain, for lawns and flowerbeds are beginning to look parched. Young people, however, need no better tonic than the morning bath. Under the strong sun the beach fraternity is acquiring an Indianlike tan.

Reports from the Elberon Horticultural Society indicate that the flower show, which closed Saturday night, was a big success. Between 10,000 and 15,000 persons visited the show during the four days it was held in the beach Auditorium. The exhibit was so successful that plans are already on foot for next season's event.

Mid-July finds this famous resort crowded with thousands of vacationists enjoying ideal summer weather and a wide variety of summer pastimes and hotel social functions. There are more visitors here, more automobiles and greater variety of entertainment than the resort has ever known. The usual week-end influx last night and to-day again taxed the hotel accommodations and over Sunday sojourners were obliged again to seek quarters in private residences. Season visitors at the hotels are more numerous than in former years and hotel proprietors are beginning to worry over August, the great rush month of the season.

In the absence of any general amusement this week visitors sought diversions that suited individual tastes or turned to the hotel master of ceremonies. At several of the hotels elaborate functions are being prepared for the latter part of the month and early August preceding the opening of the carnival programme. At the Coleman House Prof. Bauman is arranging the annual cotillon. The Brunswick's annual German will be danced within the coming week and the Lafayette is rehearsing its children's carnival. At the Columbia a Kermesse will be danced and other special programmes are being prepared at other houses.

Carl Edouard is playing to capacity houses at the Arcade. His concerts are featured by the singing of a mixed quartet, which has already won a popular place among boardwalk promenaders. The Fallettes continue to draw immense audiences at the Casino. A masque ball will be given at the Casino next Thursday night for the benefit of the Ann May Hospital at Spring Lake.

The New Monterey Hotel is having an excellent season. The house was obliged to turn away guests last week and Manager Frank F. Shute to-night reports that the crowds are taxing the capacity. The Metropolitan, which opened last week, is entertaining many visitors. Workers have about completed the new Hoch street wing and the entire house will be opened next week.

Members of the Asbury Park Fishing Club honored Capt. George W. Fenimore at their annual meeting Monday night by naming him, without opposition, as president. Other officers named were William Desondert and James M. Gentile of New York, vice-presidents, and R. H. Norris and J. F. Seeger, secretary and treasurer, respectively. Deep sea fishermen report a school of bluefish working inshore and rodmens are ready for great sport when the school strikes local waters.

Tennis enthusiasts are marking the day when the new courts opposite the New Monterey Hotel will "set" sufficiently to permit playing. Many players who are keeping in form on nearby courts promise to give tennis a great revival here this summer. Baseball at the athletic grounds is a regular feature of the week-end entertainment programme.

Autoists in Asbury who have been careless over registration matters and who are too prone to "open up" while driving through city streets have been in police difficulties this week. State inspectors from the motor vehicle department are busy regulating the traffic. Automobile reciprocity with New York has brought so many tourists here that the traffic regulation is a serious problem.

Miss Anna de Zaflo, who has been a popular visitor here, has sailed for Havana, Cuba, to visit her mother. She was given a farewell party at the Martini-nique, where she was staying.

Among the week's arrivals were: New Monterey—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Love and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Love and family, Miss Hand, George H. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. H. Davis, Miss H. Hand, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Day, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hanford, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Clark, Miss M. Clark, Miss C. Clark, F. H. Calcutt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Joyce, Mrs. P. W. Pollock, James Pincus, Miss R. Vanderhill, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schanck, Henry O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Herper, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. F. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. W. Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Boggs, John Mackenzie, Miss R. Groves and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts of New York.

WATER SPORTS AT LAKE HOPATCONG, NEW JERSEY

LAKE HOPATCONG, N. J., July 13.—The height of the season has been reached and there never was a time when so many people were gathered here as now. There has been no lack of excitement. There has been no lack of excitement. There has been no lack of excitement.

A novel and interesting exhibition was the tent pegging and hunting by Capt. K. Lawson of the Rough Riding Club of New York on Thursday. Baseball has lost none of its popularity here, judging by the interest taken in the games. Marshall Hennessey of Brooklyn, an old college player of note, Luther and Hollister Kennedy of New York University, Thurston of Princeton and L. Clarkson of Columbia College are the prime movers in this sport. It is the intention of Prodigitor H. J. Hank of the Brooklyn Hotel to keep his place open until late in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Halsey Thurston of New York, who are among the social leaders here this summer, entertained a party of twenty at luncheon at the Breslin Casino Wednesday noon. Mrs. K. Harris of Brooklyn gave a luncheon to a party of four Wednesday. There is a club here composed of prominent New Yorkers who enjoy the real comforts of a country home life. It is over twenty-four years old, and is situated on Pleasant Point, surrounded by cottagers who compose its membership exclusively. No one can become a member unless he has a cottage on Pleasant Point.

VISITORS FORM NEW CAPE MAY YACHT CLUB

War in Older Organization
Over $45,000 Building
Leads to Split.

DENTAL SOCIETY MEETS

Largest Hotel at Resort Adds to Dining Capacity and Kitchens.

CAPE MAY, N. J., July 13.—A merry war in the membership of the Cape May Yacht Club has led to the organization of a second yacht club, in which are the more wealthy visitors, including New York summer residents. The disruption in the organization of this popular club, which has been a leading factor in Cape May seaside life for the last ten years, was caused by the overambitiousness of Cape May residents themselves.

At this resort are the representatives of a number of old local families, who because of their mingling with the wealthy visitors have become imbued with the idea that they are not only socially their equals but can do in a financial way what the visitors do. They do not seem to remember that the wealthy visitor is the person who really supports them and who spends the money which keeps up the social organizations at the resort.

A large number of Cape May people who had small yachts were taken in as members of the club, and beginning with last autumn, the wealthy visitors concluded that they desired a larger and more modern clubhouse, and began preparations for the erection of a $45,000 building.
